GERMAN DRILL COMPETITION (GRADES I-V)

Dear Parents and Students,

Greetings!

We are delighted to announce the German Drill Competition for students of Grades I to V. This exciting event will provide our young participants with an opportunity to showcase their agility, speed, coordination, confidence, and teamwork in a fun and competitive environment.

Competition Details

Date: Thursday, 6th August 2026

Time: 11:35 a.m. – 12:25 p.m.

Venue: Football Ground

Eligibility: Grades I-V

Rules & Regulations

- The competition will be conducted standard-wise.
- Students must line up completely behind the starting cone and begin only after the coach's whistle.
- Participants must weave around each cone in the correct order without skipping or knocking over any cone.
- Students should maintain a safe distance from the runner ahead and must not push, pull, or tag other participants.
- After completing the drill, participants must return safely and gently high-five the next teammate to begin their turn.
- If the coach gives the stop signal, all participants must freeze immediately and sit quietly beside their respective cones.
- Participants must follow the instructions of the coaches and event officials throughout the competition.
- The decision of the judges and event officials will be final and binding.

This competition is a wonderful opportunity for students to demonstrate their physical abilities, build confidence, and experience the joy of healthy competition, teamwork, and sportsmanship. We encourage all eligible students to participate enthusiastically.

Interested Students in participating are requested to register their names with their respective House Masters by Friday, 31st July 2026.
